Getting Around

Upon touching down in Singapore, you are in one of the most efficient countries in the world. There are airport staff and clear signages leading you to the various public transportation systems.

TAXIS

Taxi stands are available at all terminals. The average fare from the airport to the city is SGD25. As an alternative, you can easily download a private hire app called "Grab" that is available on the Apple Store and the Google Play stores.

TRAIN

Upon arrival at the airport, you can purchase a tourist pass card to get 1-3 days unlimited ride on trains and buses. Depending on the type of tourist pass, you can either purchase at the Transitlink Ticket Office at the station at Terminal 2, or the cheers outlet at Terminal 1/3. More info can be found at :

Type of Passes - The Singapore Tourist Pass

Where To Buy - The Singapore Tourist Pass

Alternatively, you could purchase an Ez-link card (that requires topping up!) at the transitlink Ticket Office.

To get to the city, take the train from Changi Airport MRT Station (CG2) to Tanah Merah MRT Station (EW4), then transfer to the East West Line towards Tuas Link MRT Station (EW33).

Alternatively, take the train from Changi Airport MRT Station (CG2) to Expo MRT Station (CG1/DT35), then transfer to the Downtown Line towards Bukit Panjang MRT Station (BP6/DT1).

From Changi Airport MRT Station to Tanah Merah MRT Station:

First train

Monday to Saturday: 5:31 AM

Sunday and public holidays: 5:59 AM

Last train

Connecting to Tuas Link: 11:18 PM, daily

THINGS TO SEE IN SINGAPORE

BATTLEBOX

This is the best rendition of why and how Singapore fell to the Japanese in 1942. The largest surrender in British history. An army of 120,000 soldiers surrendered to 20 + thousand Japanese.

Take a look at the website and consider going there either on the day before the tournaments or the day after. Tickets are 20 SGD and you should book ahead if you want to ensure a spot.

Total Costs of Participation in ATC

We recommend staying at the MYMCA eating around the area and even exploring a little of singapore while you are here in the lion city.

This brief should give you an idea of what to expect and what kind of costs you are looking at to come to this amazing tournament.

These are all estimates given our experience and we look forward to seeing you here!
